

LOOKING FOR A LAW SCHOOL COMMITTED TO DIVERSITY?

The Office of Admissions and the Minority Law Students Alliance (MLSA) at the BENJAMIN N. CARDOZO SCHOOL OF LAW invite you to attend our tenth annual
DIVERSITY LAW DAY FOR PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS

Thursday, February 22, 2007 at 12 p.m.

Cardozo knows the importance of a diverse student body. Each year, our students come from more than 30 states and numerous countries around the globe. One-half of our students are women, more than 20% are students of color, and an additional 20% are returning to school at least five years after receiving their undergraduate degree. Located in Greenwich Village in New York City, Cardozo boasts the following:

- The quality of Cardozo's faculty and student body are among the best in the country according to Leiter's Law School rankings. The full survey can be found at <http://www.leiterrankings.com>.
- Cardozo is the youngest law school in the United States to have a chapter of Order of the Coif (the law school equivalent of Phi Beta Kappa).
- Cardozo is ranked # 6 nationally in the areas of Intellectual Property Law and Alternative Dispute Resolution by US News & World Report.
- Our Center for Public Service Law highlights the School's long-standing commitment to serving the public good.
- Cardozo's unique clinical programs are nationally known and respected. The school's curriculum places an emphasis on hands-on legal experience in order to bridge the gap between legal education and practice.
- The School of Law has recently completed a $50 million renovation project including a state-of-the-art Moot Court Room, Law Library and Center for Student Life.
