DISSERTATION FELLOWSHIP COMPETITION

Deadline: October 15, 2007

APPLICATION FOR PROPOSALS
Center for Puerto Rican Studies
Hunter College, CUNY
CUNY-Caribbean Exchange Programs
Application for Proposals 2008

The Centro is opening a doctorate fellowship competition through the Caribbean Exchange Program for full-time graduate students working towards their doctorate degree. Applicants must be at the post data collection stage of the dissertation process at any fully accredited university in the United States or Puerto Rico. This grant pertains to students who are studying and researching topics and issues relating to Puerto Rico, Puerto Rican history, and the Puerto Rican Diaspora in the U.S. and the Caribbean.

We are providing $18,000 for one calendar year (January 2008 –December 2008), office space with telephone and internet access, library and archive access, and copier services. There will be opportunities to interact with Centro researchers, participate in research staff meetings, professional development activities and conferences.

The candidate is expected to be in residence at the Centro in Hunter College. At the end of the year candidates will present their work to the Centro staff in a conference. Finalists will be selected by a committee of Centro and CUNY faculty.

Please include the following information with your application:

- I. Information Sheet
- II. Two reference letters
- III. One-page proposal abstract
- IV. Project Proposals (four double-spaced pages maximum). These must include:
 - 1. Description of research
 - 2. Objectives and significance of the dissertation research project.
 - 3. Contribution to the field of Puerto Rican and Latino Studies.
