Fulbright Grant 2009-2010

Graduating by 2009? Or in graduate school?

Thinking of going abroad to study, teach English or do research?

Learn about opportunities through the U.S. Student Fulbright Program

COME TO AN INFORMATION SESSION

THURSDAY, MAY 8, 2008

4:00 PM

THE CENTER FOR STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT, C001 N

A Fulbright Grant may offer you the opportunity to study, work and live in the country of your choice for one year. Hunter students have gone on to study anthropology in Thailand, religion in Germany, paint in the Philippines, work in a non- governmental organization in Malawi, or teach English in Turkey, Germany and Argentina, among many other countries.

The session will be led by Myrna Fader, Hunter's Fulbright Program Advisor.
