

ADEA Workshop and Recruitment Fair for Predental Students and Advisors

February 27, 2010
10:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Gaylord National Harbor
Washington, D.C.

FACT SHEET

In conjunction with its Annual Session in Washington, D.C., the American Dental Education Association (ADEA) is pleased to offer this unique opportunity for students and health professions advisors from the mid-Atlantic region to participate in the ADEA Workshop and Recruitment Fair for Predental Students and Advisors.

Who should attend:

High school and college students who are considering a career in the health professions and want to know more about dentistry should attend this event. Students wanting to learn more about dentistry as well as students who have already identified themselves as predental will benefit.

Location:

Gaylord National Hotel at National Harbor, just outside Washington, D.C.

Travel instructions for both Metropolitan Washington, D.C. participants and those traveling from farther distances are available at the ADEA Workshop and Recruitment Fair registration website, www.adea.org/GoDental.

Format:

- Brief high-impact information sessions
- A Recruitment Fair that will feature:
 - Dental schools from throughout the U.S.
 - Financial aid officers to discuss financing a dental education
 - Representatives from SMDEP, a summer enrichment program designed for college freshmen and sophomores to better prepare for admission to dental and medical school
 - Dental students who will answer questions and discuss what dental school is like

A raffle and prizes will be awarded at the Recruitment Fair

Registration:

Registration is FREE. Go to www.adea.org/GoDental. (We ask that you register in advance to assure that we order enough lunches for all.)

The registration deadline is February 22, 2010. A confirmation will be emailed to you.

Financial Assistance:

A limited number of travel stipends are available for individuals and groups traveling from outside the Metropolitan Washington, D.C. area. To request more information, contact: adeadivisionofeducationalpathways@adea.org.

Why should I consider a career in dentistry?

There are many compelling reasons to choose dentistry as a career including providing healthcare to others, and building a balanced and financially secure lifestyle. Opportunities for dentists are growing because of the intense national need to improve access to oral health care for all, and to meet the continuously growing demand for oral health services.
