

a community event in Brooklyn

CHARTING THE LIFE COURSE FOR WOMEN

OUR CHOICES THROUGH HEALTH REFORM

What will the planned New York State Health Exchange mean for Brooklyn women, their quality of life, reproductive potential and birth outcomes?

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Dr. Yvonne Graham

Associate Commissioner of Health
NYS Department of Health
Director, Office of Health Disparities Prevention

PANELISTS INCLUDE: Kecia Gaither, MD, BUHMC

DATE: Thursday, March 22, 2012

EVENT TIME: 9:30 am - 1:00 pm

Registration and light breakfast begin at 8:30 am.

LOCATION:

Sonja and Dr. Alvin I. Kahn Auditorium
Schulman and Schachne Institute for Nursing and Rehabilitation
555 Rockaway Parkway, Brooklyn, NY 11212

REGISTRATION:

To register, call (718) 240-9033, ext. 30.
Roxanne Coombs, rcoombs@bpnetwork.org

Sponsored by the Brooklyn Perinatal Network and Raising Women's Voices-NY

Co-sponsored by the Public Health Association of NYC, Health Care For All New York, Metro New York Health Care For All Campaign, Community Service Society of New York and Brookdale Hospital Medical Center

This event is partially funded by the NYCDOHMH Infant Mortality Reduction Project

Bus:

B15 to Church Ave. and New Lots Ave. stop
B35 to Brookdale Hospital
B8 to Brookdale Hospital

Subway:

3 (New Lots) to Saratoga. Walk down Saratoga to East 98th Street and make a left toward the hospital

