2012 KeyBank and Fisher College of Business
Leadership and Creativity Undergraduate Minority Student Symposium
October 25 – 28, 2012
Columbus, Ohio

Building Future Leaders

This invitation is extended to under-represented ethnic minority undergraduate students from select universities to join us for this annual innovative seminar hosted by The Ohio State University's Fisher College of Business and sponsored with generous funding from the KeyBank Foundation.

This three-day event will provide a competitive forum for skill building in the following areas:

- Leadership training
- Creativity and power of creative thinking
- Financial Excel modeling and spreadsheet analysis
- Entrepreneurial theory and practice
- Persuasive communication

Benefits Include:

- Complimentary Housing accommodations and meals
- Participation allowance (ranging from $200-$400)
- Individual scholarships ranging from $750 to $1,500

Eligibility requirements:

- Enrolled junior or senior undergraduate business or engineering student. A maximum of only two students per university can attend.
- Under-represented ethnic minority students with GPAs above 3.0 (preferably 3.4 or above) on a 4.0 scale.
- Resume, unofficial college transcript, completed application form including an essay explaining the reason for wanting to enroll.
- Non-Refundable $50 registration fee (checks or money orders only) payable to: OSU FCOB OMSS. Early registration fee $30 on or before June 1, 2012.

The registration deadline is Friday, August 31, 2012. Special consideration will be given to applicants who have student organization executive board experience (President, Vice-President, Treasurer, or Secretary) and to students who register prior to June 1, 2012. All applicants must register at: <http://fisher.osu.edu/keybankcreativity>
