

The Greater New York City Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure® (Komen Greater NYC), the world's largest grassroots network of breast cancer activists, is looking for graduate level interns! Komen Greater NYC has forty grantees in the greater metropolitan area that serve populations most in need. We also advocate for public policies that ensure all women have access to breast cancer screening and treatment. For more information about Komen Greater NYC, please visit our website at: www.komennyc.org.

Grants & Public Health/Public Policy Fall 2012 – Spring 2013 Internship

Komen Greater NYC Grants & Public Health/ Public Policy Graduate level interns will have the opportunity to work on a range of projects related to grant making and public health policy. Some intern responsibilities include assisting with grant compliance, assessing grant progress reports, as well as scheduling and attending site visits to grantee organizations. In the public policy arena, interns will work on policy research projects that improve access to health care with particular attention to breast cancer. This is a great opportunity to learn about grant making, foundation work and public policy, although the focus is on grant making. We are looking for MPH candidates who are interested in part-time internships to work a minimum of 14 hours a week during business hours (9am - 5pm) from mid-September 2012 – mid-May 2013. Interns will receive a travel stipend.

For anyone interested in applying for a Grants & Public Health/ Public Policy Graduate level internship, please contact Zenia E. Dacio-Mesina, Grants Program Coordinator, by sending a resume, cover letter, and short writing sample (no more than 5 pages) to zdmesina@komennyc.org or call (212) 461-6185. Applications will be reviewed as they are received.

Qualifications and Competencies

- Excellent communication skills, both oral and written
- Commitment to accuracy and attention to detail
- Strong organizational skills and ability to work under pressure
- Strong interpersonal skills; courtesy, tact, patience and team orientation
- Ability to multi-task and to prioritize work amidst competing demands