

WALMART

*If you let me in,
I'll bring jobs, low prices & I'll help
New York live better...
Don't you trust me?*

NO MORE LIES

New Yorkers deserve
the truth!

Walmart plans to buy and bully its way into NYC with deceptive ads and political contributions, while ignoring public concerns as they already have in other big cities.

Workers, faith leaders, and activists from across the country are joining NYC to expose Walmart's broken promises: from poverty wages and workplace discrimination, to the devastation of local economies.

Join us at the No More Lies town hall to find out what Walmart doesn't want you to know about their plans for NYC, and learn how we can fight back!
