

LECTURE & TASTING

A TASTE OF TOHOKU: FOOD, SAKE, RECIPES & STORIES

THURSDAY, APRIL 11 AT 6:30 PM

Japanese culinary authority Elizabeth Andoh introduces a selection of Tohoku's dishes from KIBŌ: Brimming with Hope (A Ten Speed Ebook, 2012). While the Tohoku region recovers from the devastation of the Great East Japan Tsunami and Earthquake, we celebrate the region's rich culinary culture, integrating it with Japan's indigenous food culture. KIBŌ is a tribute to the food, traditions and courage of the people of Japan's Tohoku region and features traditional recipes along with sake pairings. Following the lecture portion of the program, a tasting reception provides an opportunity to sample Tohoku specialties paired with regional sake.

TICKETS $16/$12 Japan Society member, seniors & students*

*Ticket price includes post-event tasting reception

This program is sponsored by Kikkoman Corporation.

Lecture Programs at Japan Society are generously sponsored by Toyota North America, Inc.

TOYOTA

Japan Airlines is the exclusive Japanese Airline sponsor of Lecture Programs at Japan Society.

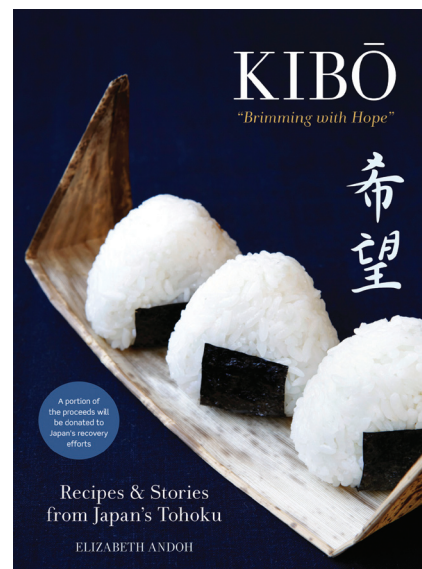

United Airlines is the exclusive U.S. Airlines sponsor of Lecture Programs at Japan Society.

Additional support is provided by Chris A. Wachenheim and the Sandy Heck Lecture Fund.

Courtesy of Elizabeth Andoh.

Courtesy of Ten Speed Press.

Order online at www.japansociety.org

Box Office: (212) 715-1258; Mon-Fri., 11 am-6 pm

Members may purchase up to two tickets at members' price per event, unless otherwise noted.

333 E. 47th St. between 1st & 2nd Ave.

