

FREE Event through The Graduate Center, CUNY Participatory Open, Online Course

What is the Future of Public Housing?

Tuesday, April 2, 6:30 - 8:00 p.m.

Auditorium, Silberman Campus (2180 Third Avenue at 119th Street)

Reassessing Inequality and Reimagining the 21st Century: East Harlem Focus

Instructors:

Wendy Luttrell, Caitlin Cahill,
Edwin Mayorga, Wilneida Negrón

February 5 – May 7, 2013

Join us every Tuesday evening for dialogues with scholars, community activists, and artists who address issues of inequality through conversation and research with the East Harlem community.

Twitter hashtag: #InQ13

Web: <http://inq13.gc.cuny.edu/>

For questions, email: jdaniels@hunter.cuny.edu

Special Guests:

Edward Goetz, Center for Urban and Regional Affairs, University of Minnesota

Peter Marcuse, Columbia University

Gretchen Susi, Aspen Institute

Ethel Velez
NYCHA Resident Leader

Moderated by:

Susan Saegert, Graduate Center

Open to the public.
(Photo ID required to enter building.)

Session will be livestreamed at <http://live.inq13.gc.cuny.edu/>
and recorded video will be made available afterwards.

THE GRADUATE CENTER
CITY UNIVERSITY
OF NEW YORK

Just Publics @ 365

Course Co-Sponsors:

Advanced Research Collaborative @ARCUNY

Ford Foundation @Fordfoundation