

FULL TIME WIC PROGRAM BREASTFEEDING COORDINATOR

The William F. Ryan Community Health Center, a federally funded Multi-Site Community Health Center in Manhattan, is seeking a full time Breastfeeding Coordinator to manage the WIC Program breastfeeding initiatives. Responsibilities include oversight of the Breastfeeding Peer Counseling Program, the Breast Pump Program, as well as day-to-day breastfeeding promotion and support services for WIC Program participants. Other duties include assisting the Program Director in day to day management and providing nutrition assessment for participants when needed.

Qualifications Include:

- Bachelor's Degree in Nutrition Required
- Registered Dietitian (RD) Required
- International Board Certified Lactation Consultant (IBCLC) Preferred, or other Certification in Lactation Management
- Bilingual English / Spanish Preferred
- Previous Supervisory Experience Preferred

JCAHO Accredited Facility-Excellent Benefits, Competitive Salary

The Ryan Center is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

To Apply: Please send resume and cover letter by email to Pam Harbin, RD,MS, Director of Nutrition and WIC Program at : pam.harbin@ryancenter.org.