

The Planned Parenthood of New York City Training Institute Presents:

Latino Immigration, U.S. Policy, and Reproductive Health: What's the Connection?

Screening of Harvest of Empire: A History of Latinos in America and Panel Discussion

Join us for a showing of Harvest of Empire: A History of Latinos in America, a documentary based on the groundbreaking book by Juan González about U.S. policy in Latin America and immigration, followed by a panel discussion to explore the connection between these topics and sexual and reproductive health. Attendees are invited to ask the panelists questions and engage in this critical conversation.

Panelists:

Juan González – Award-winning journalist, one of the founders of the National Association of Hispanic Journalists (NAHJ), one of the founding fathers of UNITY: Journalists of Color, and author of several nonfiction books, including Harvest of Empire: A History of Latinos in America

Jessica González-Rojas, M.P.A. – Executive Director, National Latina Institute for Reproductive Health

May Sifuentes – Lead Latino Outreach Coordinator, Planned Parenthood Federation of America | Planned Parenthood Action Fund

Diana Santana, M.A. – Associate Regional Director, Latin America Regional Office of Planned Parenthood Federation of America
