The Global Forum on Innovation in Health Professional Education will be webcasting its next workshop on Scaling up Best Practices in Community-based Health Professional Education on May 1-2, 2014. This workshop aims to provide a framework for understanding the responsibilities of health professions, institutions, and students to the communities they serve; and to explore a wide variety of innovative models of community-based health professional education. A special 2-hour session targeting web viewers will take place on May 2 beginning at 8:45 AM ET. This session will highlight examples of community-based educational activities. Please share this information with colleagues and others who may be interested in the event.

The IOM Global Forum on Innovation in Health Professional Education aims to apply an ongoing, multi-national, multi-disciplinary approach to exploring promising innovations in health education.
