

Edible Schoolyard NYC Fall Kitchen Classroom Volunteer Program

About Edible Schoolyard NYC

Edible Schoolyard NYC partners with public schools to build gardens and kitchen classrooms where children can engage in hands-on learning. Our goal is to provide students with the knowledge, skills and environment required to make healthier choices and change the way they eat for life.

Position Description

The Kitchen Volunteer Program is a weekly commitment that runs for 15 weeks from September through December during the fall semester at P.S. 7 in East Harlem. Working under the supervision of the Lead Kitchen Teacher, the volunteer assists with daily setup, in-class tidying and preparation, and breakdown.

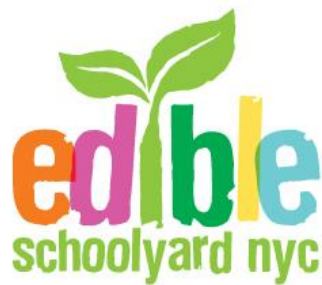

Semester-long volunteers play an essential role in the operation of cooking class at P.S. 7. Many of their responsibilities focus on classroom cleanliness and equipment organization, alongside creating a learning environment that allows students to cook in a well-ordered classroom. Volunteers end the day sharing a tasting with the students who cooked it!

Please note: this is not a teaching position.

Responsibilities Include:

- Set-up for class: basic food preparation and teaching trays
- Classroom maintenance: dish washing and resetting teaching trays
- Breakdown after class: reorganizing washed dishes
- Weekly photography: take photos of students in action for our social media channels
- Monthly deliveries: receive and stock dry goods and pantry items

Duration

The Kitchen Classroom Volunteer Program is a 15-week unpaid commitment, which takes place Monday through Friday. Each volunteer picks one day of the week to commit to for the semester. The program begins the week of September 15, 2014 and concludes the week of December 22, 2014.

Application Information

Interested applicants should send a cover letter and resume with “Kitchen Classroom Volunteer Program” in the subject line to as@esynyc.org. Please specify which day of the week you would like to volunteer, why you are interested in this opportunity, and any relevant work experience. Applications will be accepted until September 12, 2014. Selected applicants must pass a background check and get fingerprinted. No phone calls or drop-ins, please.
