

JOB VACANCY NOTICE

October 10, 2014

Health Counselor - U XI
Health Initiatives Department
Time Limited through June 2016

The Community Service Society (CSS) is an independent, not-for-profit organization that has been at the forefront of public policy innovations that support low-income New Yorkers for more than 170 years. CSS runs a statewide Navigator Network which helps consumers find and enroll in health coverage under the Affordable Care Act (ACA). It also runs Community Health Advocates (CHA), a health consumer assistance program offering health insurance consumer assistance through a toll-free central hotline and a statewide network of specialist agencies and community based organizations (CBOs) which can help consumers and small businesses in the communities where they live and work. These services are free for New York health care consumers and small businesses.

CSS is looking for a Health Counselor to join a newly established Demonstration Project in East and Central Harlem that brings CSS's health insurance enrollment and navigational assistance services to residents of public housing developments within these two neighborhoods. The program is part of a New York City Community Health Worker Initiative aimed at reducing disparities in health. More specifically:

Job Description:

The Health Counselor will provide in-person and telephone advice and assistance to public housing residents in East and Central Harlem about how they can find and use health insurance or health care.
