April 28 Rediscovering the American People

LARRY KRAMER

AUTHOR OF THE NORMAL HEART, THE TRAGEDY OF TODAY'S GAYS, AND THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

A Private Roundtable Discussion

Larry Kramer is an award-winning playwright and author, and a celebrated public-health and gay-rights advocate. He wrote the Academy Award-nominated screenplay adaptation of D. H. Lawrence's Women in Love and rose to further prominence with the publication in 1978 of his bestselling novel, Faggots. A pioneering AIDS activist, he cofounded the Gay Men's Health Crisis in 1982 and founded ACT UP in 1987. Kramer has won numerous awards for his plays and in 2013 was named a Master American Dramatist by the PEN/Laura Pels International Foundation for Theater. In 2014, the HBO adaptation of his play The Normal Heart won the Emmy Award for Outstanding Television Movie. April will see the publication of the first volume of his decades-in-the-making book, The American People, and the release of an HBO documentary about his life. Don't miss the opportunity to speak with Kramer about his unparalleled career of citizen artistry and activism.
