

HUNGER AND FOOD INSECURITY IN THE LGBT COMMUNITY

Hosted by O'Melveny and Myers LLP

Contrary to popular stereotypes, LGBT people disproportionately experience poverty and food insecurity. This panel will discuss new research from the Williams Institute and its implications for policy makers and service providers.

Thursday, June 4, 2015 / 6 p.m.

Law Offices of O'Melveny and Myers / 7 Times Square, New York City

RSVP at williamsinstitute.law.ucla.edu/events

Barbara Turk
Director of Food Policy,
New York City

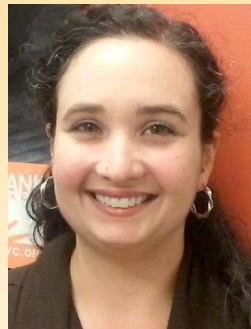

Gary Gates
Research
Director,
the Williams Institute at UCLA

Janet Poppendieck
Professor
Emerita of
Sociology,
Policy Director,
NYC Food
Policy Center,
Hunter College

Elana Redfield
Director
of LGBTQI
Affairs, Human Resources
Administration

Triada Stampas
VP for Research and
Public Affairs,
Food Bank for
New York City

Kim Kessler
Policy and Special Programs
Director,
Resnick
Program for Food Law and Policy, UCLA

