for women facing breast and ovarian cancers

MINORITIES AND CANCER

In honor of National Minority Cancer Awareness Month, SHARE and Memorial Sloan Kettering (MSK)

Office of Diversity Programs will be hosting a special program on breast and ovarian cancers for the African American and Latina communities.

Come and learn about these diseases, the latest treatments, and their effects on these communities and survivorship. This program will be held in English with Spanish translation services provided.

Speakers are from MSK:

Carol L. Brown, MD; Diana Lake, MD; Victoria S. Blinder, MD

Thursday, April 14, 2016, 2:00-5:00pm

Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center

Zuckerman Research Center Auditorium,
