GO GIRL Internship

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

On August 14th 2013, the Boards of Directors of CitiWide Harm Reduction and Bronx AIDS Services unanimously voted to create a newly merged and rebranded Bronx-based organization, BOOM!Health, that now delivers a full range of prevention, health coordination, behavioral health, housing, legal, advocacy and wellness services to over 8,000 of the hardest to reach communities in the Bronx, New York.

GO GIRL is one of our youth programs funded by the New York Women's Foundation to empower women from disadvantaged backgrounds. We focus on financial education, college readiness, self esteem building, and sexual health education for young women ages 13-24.

Interns work at the Central Office for a minimum of 10 hours a week in the afternoon (after 3:00PM). The weekly schedule may vary depending on the list of activities or events that are planned. Occasional weekend and late evening hours may be required. Expected start date: late September 2016

The program offers experience in

- Community engagement
- HIV/AIDS education
- Leadership/ administrative skills
- Data management and data entry
- Outreach
- Mentorship

The program is directed by David Lopez and is managed by Haadiyah Hamadi, MSW, LCSW-R.

What are we looking for in an applicant?

The GO GIRL program seeks a female intern that is creative, highly organized, self-starter, and demonstrates an interest in working with disadvantaged young women. The ideal person works well in a team environment and independently. Bilingual applicants in Spanish/English are strongly encouraged to apply. A strong candidate will have recruitment experience preferably with adolescents and social media.
