

New York City Council Speaker Candidate Forum:

Focus on Cis & Trans Women and Non-Binary New Yorkers

Co-Moderated by Laura Nahmias (Politico) & Shatia Burks (Young Women's Advisory Council, New York City Young Women's Initiative)

Thursday, December 7, 2017

6-8 p.m., Reception to follow

Roosevelt House Public Policy Institute at Hunter College
47-49 E 65 Street, NY, NY 10065

The next Speaker of the New York City Council has an essential role to play, particularly in this political moment, in ensuring that New York City women and non-binary New Yorkers—particularly those of color—thrive. As Speaker Mark-Viverito's tenure draws to a close, we invite you to join us to learn more about how Speaker candidates will continue moving a policy agenda forward that lifts up our communities while building on the legacy of leadership before them.

Reception Co-Hosted by Girls for Gender Equity, Citizen's Committee for Children of New York, Planned Parenthood of New York City, Campaign for Black Male Achievement, Eleanor's Legacy and The Brotherhood/Sister Sol.

This event is free and wheelchair accessible. Seating is limited, so please RSVP to <https://goo.gl/kxv23h>.

Partnering Organizations (list in formation): Girls for Gender Equity, Women of Color for Progress, Brooklyn Movement Center, The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Community Center, PowHer NY, Planned Parenthood of New York City, National Organization of Women—NYC Chapter, New Leaders Council, National Institute for Reproductive Health, Brotherhood SisterSol, Campaign for Black Male Achievement, Citizen's Committee for Children, Eleanor's Legacy, National Association of Social Workers—NYC Chapter. Hosted by Roosevelt House Public Policy Institute at Hunter College.