

Maximizing Access to Research Careers

MARC Program at Hunter College

Preparing Underrepresented Undergraduates for entry to PhD programs in Biomedical & Behavioral Sciences

Benefits /Opportunities:

- Application Preparation for PhD programs
- Scientific Research Training & Mentoring
- Travel to National Conferences/ Present Your Research
- Network with Scientists and Graduate Recruiters
- Monthly Stipend $1,049 & Tuition Assistance

- US Citizen or Permanent Resident
- Full time Matriculated Hunter Undergraduate
- At least a 3.0 GPA & 60 credits or higher (with 2 years left to graduate)
- Majors: Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Math, Physics, or Psychology
- Goal: Graduate Research – In pursuit of a PhD degree

Program Commitments:

2 year commitment

Devote 15-20 hours per week in a research lab throughout academic year and full time during the summer

Prepare and present research posters for conferences

Participate in one external summer internship

Program course, Sci 200, & professional development activities

Take GRE & apply to PhD programs

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

APRIL 16, 2018

<http://marc.hunter.cuny.edu>

VISIT MARC OFFICE: 313N

