

2018 Summer Health Internship Program (SHIP)

What is SHIP?

SHIP is a 6-week summer internship program primarily for under-represented minority students who are interested in the health professions. High school students entering 11th or 12th grade and college students starting their freshman or sophomore year are eligible to apply.

Why join SHIP?

- Learn about your pathway to health careers
- Explore a health topic of your choice
- Meet guest speakers who work in health careers
- Visit health professions schools
- Get a head start on your career by interning and observing the day-to-day jobs of a variety of health professionals

Applications Available online in February 1, 2018
