OUTPATIENT REGISTERED DIETITIAN/CLINICAL NUTRITIONIST & DIABETES EDUCATOR (0.8 FTE)

Exciting outpatient primary care clinical nutritionist and diabetes educator. Our ideal candidates are dynamic and motivated to provide comprehensive medical nutrition therapy and diabetes education for diverse and primarily Spanish speaking adult, perinatal and pediatric populations in outpatient settings. This opportunity enables the advantages of leveraging telehealth technologies and working closely on a team of outpatient dietitians/diabetes educators with interdisciplinary providers.

If you are a registered dietitian who also enjoys providing DSMES, this is the perfect position for you.

REQUIRED:

- Registered Dietitian (RDN)
- NYS certification (CDN)
- minimum of one (1) year of clinical nutrition experience

STRONGLY PREFERRED:

- Certified Diabetes Education Specialist (CDCES)
- Bilingual English-Spanish
- experience in outpatient settings

Enjoy competitive compensation along with benefits such as tuition reimbursement, hospital retirement contributions, and financial planning assistance. NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital is an equal opportunity employer.
